

41 Reasons to Choose Harvard

Competing for the nation's oldest university • Because everyone looks good in Crimson • Lunches with friendly, world-renowned professors • Best sports town in America • Campus with a rich culture and appreciation for diversity • It's way less nerdy than your safety school • More than 90 libraries in the Harvard system • Dining in Annenberg, the Hogwarts Hall of Harvard • 342 Ivy championships, 138 national championships, 206 Olympians • BBQ and tire swings in Harvard Yard • It's cool to be smart and athletic • Matt Damon and Natalie Portman went here • Meeting people who will one day be very important • Meeting people who are currently very important • Noch's at midnight and Felipe's at 1 a.m. • Late night conversations ranging from civil rights to American Idol • Seeing a play, an a capella concert, or a comedy show all in one night • Over 340 student organizations • Free Wu-Tang Clan concert right outside your door • President Faust coming to your games • Snowball fights in the Yard • Palmer Dixon – 24,000 square feet of the most impressive weight room you'll ever see • Your professor probably wrote the textbook used in your class (and your friends' classes at other schools) • Your resume will say Harvard on it • Beating Yale every year • You can date a guy or girl who went to Harvard • Do the wave at a Red Sox game • Getting to drop the "H-bomb" to all of your friends at home • Free massages in the library during finals • Having lunch with a gold medalist, then class with a Nobel Prize winner • Companies want to hire YOU • Brain Break: free late night snacks in the dining halls • You become part of the Harvard athletic alumni network – for life • 3,500 courses • Whirlpools in the training room • Dollar bills, twenty-six billion of them • Four burrito places, one Square • 6,391 job and internship interviews on campus every year • Facebook originated at Harvard • Average financial aid grant = $37,000 • Oh yeah, did we mention that Harvard has the largest Division I Athletics program in the country with 41 varsity sports – more athletes than any other school in the country!

GoCrimson.com • Leadership and Competitive Excellence in Division I Athletics